Striking 'Letters to a Student Revolutionary' - Los ...

Among my old papers I find, yellow with age, and torn by years of neglect, but still decipherable, the letters of a soldier of the American Revolution, written from the battlefield to his beloved ones at borne. That they are still legible, speaks well for the skill of the paper-maker of those days, when hands worked for durability rather than the false economy of cheapness, and for the ink-maker whose dyes defy the bleaching lights of a century and a quarter.
